Our services

VIDEOGRAPHY

Events Coverage

Most of the services you are hiring for your function; the flowers, the food, the music- will only last a day. But your video will last for generations to come. There is nothing like images produced at the hands of a master videographer to capture all the sights, sounds and emotions of your event

Commercials

We have experience in creating and producing commercials and infomercials. Our video and photography departments are ready to team with Advertising Agencies and Companies to finish, execute and bring concepts to life. Our services include Script consultation and writing, directing, editing, and producing and Voiceover Talent

Documentaries

Apt uses only the latest digital video equipment to shoot your documentary production. Our highly experienced documentary video production team will shoot in either 4K or high definition, plus our crew is experienced in working with steady cams and other professional equipment to get you that perfect shot.
